ORDER:

Consequent to reintroduction of medical reimbursement/credit card facility for the employees/pensioners and their dependents and family pensioners with effect from 01.04.2009 with a life time ceiling of Rs.2.0 lakhs for inpatient treatment at CGHS tariff rates, vide reference 1st cited, the scheme was modified further based on the Unions/ Associations representations from time to time vide references 2nd to 5th cited.

2. Now, Unions/Associations are further representing for modification of the Medical Scheme for covering actual expenses over and above Government medical policy with self funding medical scheme i.e., by the contribution of employees/pensioners/family pensioners on monthly basis for covering all the ailments.

3. After careful consideration of the proposal, the APTRANSCO hereby issues the following order, duly following the existing medical scheme and guidelines for self funding medical scheme also to meet the actual expenses over and above Government medical policy with employees/pensioners/family pensioners contribution fund as follows,

4. All diseases requiring hospitalization & treatment as inpatient shall be covered for reimbursement as per existing medical rules in vogue.

5. The facility of dialysis extended to the employees on rolls shall be extended even to the pensioners and family pensioners.

6. The Unions/Associations have agreed to share medical fund duly contributing Rs.100/- per month by all employees/pensioners & family pensioners towards medical expenditure for the year 2012 – 2013 i.e. from the month of June' 2012 salary/pension paid in July' 2012 which may vary from year to year as per claim ratio. The actual expenditure, will be reviewed initially in April' 2013 and the employees contribution will be modified, if necessary, accordingly. After the first review in April' 2013, if actual expenditure is found to be more than the contribution, the excess expenditure made upto March' 2013 will be recovered on prorata basis from the salary/pension of April' 2013 and contribution from April' 2013 will be enhanced on prorata basis suitably. Similarly if the actual expenditure upto March' 2013 is found to be lower than the contributions, the savings will be carried forward to the following review period and contributions w.e.f. April' 2013 will be reduced on prorata basis suitably.

7. The self funding medical scheme will be effective from 01-07-2012 is prospective and the scheme will be reviewed every year in the month of April and if any modification is required it will be done with the mutual consultation with Unions/Associations.

8. A sum of Rs 3.0 lakhs per family per year shall be considered over and above the ceiling limit of Rs 2.0 lakhs including minor ailments for life time and different major ailments covered under existing medical scheme shall be reimbursed from the self funding medical scheme as per the CGHS tariff.

9. The deduction of contribution from the salary/pension of employees/pensioners/family pensioners for the self funding medical scheme shall be maintained in a separate account by the individual companies by their respective Accounts Wing and reviewed by the concerned Director periodically/regularly. The expenditure incurred in excess of admissible amount by the corporation, only shall be charged to this account.

10. There will be no financial liability on management for maintaining the self funding medical scheme.

11. The management reserves the right to roll back or dispense with the self funding medical scheme if any dispute or irregularities arise in the implementation of the scheme with the mutual consultation with the Unions/Associations.

12. This order is issued with the concurrence of Director (Fin. & Rev.) vide Regd. No. 1765, dated:02-05-2012.

13. This order is also available on APTRANSCO website and can be accessed at the address <http://www.aptransco.gov.in>.
